Dear Miss Northmoor,

We should like to invite you to a screen test for an upcoming motion picture with sound on the 21st December.

Whilst we cannot give you any details of the production, for obvious reasons, the director has seen your performance in Nosferatu and feels you would be perfect for the role.

A provisional appointment has been made for you on Monday 21st December at 11.45.

He hopes you will be able to join him for lunch afterwards.

Please telegram to inform us whether this appointment is convenient for you.

Yours sincerely,

Jack Brown
