

Dear Winifred,

I just wanted to say how sorry I was to hear about the tragic deaths of Robert and Eleanor.

They were such bubbly, vivacious children, with such a full life ahead of them. It must be so desolating to be without them. I cannot imagine what such a thing does to one and I pray to God I shall never have to discover first hand.

I know you and William have a strong Christian faith and I hope that will be some comfort to you in this difficult time. Hold Arthur close and be grateful that God has left you with one child to raise and nurture.

Please write to tell us when the funeral is to be. Of course we will be there to support you.

Yours loving friend,

Heather
